Subject: Kourosh Hangafarin — the Environmental Choice for Imperial Beach

Dear Imperial Beach Voter:

Your vote for the next Mayor of Imperial Beach will be critical in cleaning up coastal pollution. In our view, Kourosh Hangafarin is the environmental choice for Mayor of Imperial Beach.

Unfortunately, his main opponent (Councilmember Jim Janney) has done nothing to improve Imperial Beach's water quality issues. Mr. Janney has ignored the problem, and as a candidate for Mayor has failed to present any sort of clean water plan or even tackle the issue. He seems to hope it will just go away. Ignoring polluted beaches won't safeguard IB families.

Kourosh Hangafarin is championing a comprehensive and viable Clean Water Action Plan (see back of this mailer) that will actually resolve this issue. His close relationship with local, state, and federal officials will finally give IB the clout necessary to stop pollution along our coast.

As a member on the San Diego County Planning Commission, Kourosh established an impressive environmental voting record, ensuring that developers follow the rules and pay their fair share for roads, schools, and parks.

As a civic leader, Kourosh testified in front of the California Coastal Commission alongside Sierra Club activist Mark Massara to secure public access to some of San Diego's local beaches.

Considering his comprehensive and visionary Clean Water Action Plan, along with his environmental leadership as both a public official and private citizen, the Conservation & Wildlife Alliance urges you to Vote for Kourosh Hangafarin for Mayor on November 7th.

Sincerely,

Catherine Anderson, President
